The Washington DC Chapter of 85 Broads
presents

“Financing Strategies for Growing Your Established Small Business”

Thursday, April 22nd, 2010

12 noon - 1:30pm

FEATURED PANELIST SPEAKERS:

Kavita Thakrar, Skada Capital

Sydnee Reghioui, Eagle Bank

Mary Ellen Hickman, Hickman Consulting Partners, LLC

Aileen Pisciotta, Executive Counsel PLC

If you are an established small business owner (3+ years) and are serious about finding capital to grow and invest in your business, this would be an excellent event to attend. If you're a start-up, this event will help you know what to plan for. The event will be a moderated question and answer format in which the audience will actively interact with a panel of experts, so please bring some questions with you.

THIS EVENT IS IDEAL FOR:

- Established small businesses who are at or past the 3 year mark, and are serious about finding capital to grow and invest in their business
- Technology, non-profit, government contracting, and commercial real estate companies

THIS TOPIC WILL ADDRESS:

- Pros and cons of available financing opportunities: traditional and alternative
- What you need to know about the traditional loan process
- How business plans and strategies affect your ability to get financing
- Essential legal pitfalls to avoid

Location: Ulah Bistro, 1214 U Street Northwest, Washington, DC

Fee: 85broads members: $25 / Non-members: $35 (a fixed menu lunch is included)

RSVP: nikkilobue@gmail.com
